Nathan William Fehl-Haber,)	Case No. 1:13-cr-18-04
Defendant.)

On March 13, 2013, the defendant made his initial appearance in the above-entitled action and was arraigned. AUSA Brandi Sasse Russell appeared on the Government’s behalf. Attorney Dan Herbel was appointed as defense counsel and appeared on the defendant’s behalf.

Prior to his initial appearance, defendant was incarcerated by the State of North Dakota at the North Dakota State Penitentiary in Bismarck, North Dakota. After the indictment in this case was returned and an arrest warrant issued, a detainer was filed by the United States with the North Dakota prison officials. Pursuant to the Interstate Agreement on Detainers Act (“IADA”), the defendant’s appearance before this court for his initial appearance and arraignment was secured by a writ of habeas corpus ad prosequendum.

During the hearing, defendant was advised of his rights under the IADA to continued federal custody until the charges set forth in the indictment are adjudicated. Defendant knowingly, voluntarily, and upon advice of counsel waived the anti-shuttling provisions of the IADA and in open court and stipulated to his continued housing by the State of North Dakota (the “sending state” under the IADA) at the North Dakota State Penitentiary pending trial of the charges on the indictment by the United States (the “receiving state” under the IADA). The United States concurred in this stipulation.

Based on the foregoing stipulation of the defendant and the United States and the defendant’s wavier of the anti-shuttling provisions of the IADA, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the defendant be housed in the “sending state” under the IADA, at the North Dakota State Penitentiary in Bismarck, North Dakota, pending trial of this matter or until further order of the court. Further, pursuant to the defendant’s waiver, the return of the defendant to his place of incarceration pending trial shall not be grounds under the IADA for dismissal of the charges set forth in the indictment.

Dated this 13th day of March, 2013.
